

Learning English

What is your main purpose for learning English?

When did you start learning English?

Do you ever have to use English as part of your day to day life?

Do you enjoy learning English or is it a chore?

What aspect of English is most difficult to master?

What is your strongest point in English?

What is your weakest point in English?

Do you have a broad English vocabulary?

Do you find grammar difficult?

Are you usually confident speaking in English? How can you become confident?

Is living abroad the best way to master a language?

Do you have any special tricks to help you to learn?