

Manners

Do you consider yourself to be a well-mannered person? Why?

What are considered good manners in your country while eating?

What are considered bad manners in your country while eating?

How should you greet people politely in your country?

What are considered good manners in your country while travelling on public transportation?

In your opinion are the locals where you live usually polite drivers?

Do people usually form orderly queues in your country?

Do you often hold the door open for strangers in public?

Describe an experience you had when you encountered a person you considered to be rude.

Are you ever deliberately rude to anyone?

Do you agree that we should always respect our elders?

Should certain manners be made into law?