

Money

How important is money in your life? Do you think about it a lot?

Are you more of a 'saver' or a 'spender'?

What do you typically spend the most money on each month?

Is there any way you can save more money?

Have you ever lost any money?

Do you think that you're usually generous with money?

Do you think lending money to friends and family is a good idea?

Has anyone ever owed money to you?

Have you ever been in debt? Who did you owe money to?

Would you prefer to be comfortably well off or extremely rich?

Would you prefer to be rich or beautiful?

Does more money lead to more happiness?

Is money the most important issue in a marriage?

How much money do you think you need to be financially independent?

What is the most expensive thing you've ever bought?

What's do you think is the best legal way of getting wealthy in a short time?