

Privacy

Do you consider yourself to be a private person?

Do you share information about yourself with your friends or do you keep a lot of secrets?

Are you good at keeping your friends' personal information secret?

Are you usually guarded about writing personal information on social media or do you write openly?

Do you think social media compromises our privacy?

Do you think that your government goes too far in collecting personal information?

Do you agree with the opinion that if you've got nothing to hide then you have nothing to worry about your personal information being collected by government or companies?

Has your cell phone or computer ever been hacked?

Do you worry about hacking? If so what measures do you take to avoid it?

Do you use multiple complex passwords or just one or a few simple ones?

Do you think login using fingerprints or facial recognition is a good thing?

Have you ever fallen victim to identity theft?

Is CCTV in public places a good thing or does it compromise our privacy?

Are drones becoming a threat to personal privacy?