

Religion and Faith

Are you religious? If so which faith do you follow?

Have you ever described yourself as an atheist or agnostic?

If you are religious how do you observe your religion?

Which religion is most popular in your country? Why is it so popular?

Is religious belief growing or declining in your country?

Do you agree with those who say that religion is outdated?

Do you think that religion on the whole has a positive or a negative influence on the world?

Do you believe that government and religion should be completely separate?

Do you think religions should be made to pay taxes to the government on the money they earn?

Should religious people be able to follow their beliefs even if they conflict with a country's laws?

Is it ok for religion to be taught in schools?

What's the difference between a cult and a religion?

Are there any cults in your country?

What would you do if one of your family members joined a cult?