

War

Has there ever been a war in your country?

Are you worried about a war starting in your country in the future? How do you think it could start?

What would you do if a war broke out in your country? Would you try to leave?

Do you think another world war is a possibility in the future?

In your opinion what countries pose the biggest threat to world peace?

Do you think wars and fighting are an unavoidable part of human nature?

What are the most common causes of war starting?

Does nationalism tend to increase the chance of a country going to war?

In your opinion is the UN doing a good job of maintaining world peace?

If your country were involved in a war would you volunteer to fight?

Do you think cyber wars are the wars of the future?

Are robots and AI likely to take over the fighting role from humans?

Have you ever visited a war zone?